

Maritime Trip Day 18 September 09, 2010 70 degrees F, mostly sunny

With no specific plans for today, we all slept in! We tried out our new egg poacher for breakfast. It worked pretty well and along with fresh baked cinnamon rolls from a bakery (we visited yesterday), we enjoyed a grand camper meal!

We used the rental car to go looking for a special part Bill needed to repair a light fixture and while the guys did that, Lorene and I visited yet another supermarket—Sobey's. We stocked up on a few supplies. On the way back to the campground, we stopped at the COW's Creamery and had fresh made ice cream. YUM! When the guys went to return the car, Lorene & I relaxed and enjoyed our water view!

Dinner was a quiet meal in the campground with margarita's, BLTs, potato salad & broccoli salad.

Dominoes (Lorene won, AGAIN!) and tea & cookie rounded out our peaceful day.
